

I strongly oppose Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air the anti-Kerry documentary "Stole Honor" days before the election in a clearly partisan attempt to influence the election. Their offer to allow Kerry to comment on the show afterward does not constitute equal access for political programming as required by FCC rules. Sinclair should be fined and have their license renewal jeopardized if they continue.

Yours,

James E. Calkins